AIMS 2013

1st ANNUAL SKMC INTERNATIONAL CONFERENC
ADVANCES IN MEDICINE AND SUBSPECIALITIES (AIM

February 13-15, 2013
Jumeirah Etihad Towers, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

Conference Learning Objectives:

Following completion of this conference, the attendees are expected to:

- Understand the approach to management of common cardiovascular diseases
- Understand the most recent advances in management of common medical conditions including diabetes, COPD, acute and chronic renal failure
- Learn about advances in diagnosis and management of hematologic disorders and cancers
- Be knowledgeable about epidemiology, presentation and identification of Emerging Infectious Diseases and other management of common infections
- Be knowledgeable about common respiratory and gastrointestinal diseases frequently seen in general clinical practice

Target Audience:

The conference is designed for physicians, physicians-in-training, medical students and allied he who see patients in a variety of clinical settings, including academic medical practice, private p health arenas, in the United Arab Emirates, GCC countries, Southeast Asia and North America.

www.aimsconference.com

Stay

Endorsed by:

Accredite